2025 PILGRIMAGE INFO SESSION

Today following worship and tomorrow on Zoom

Pastor Craig is pleased to host and lead a pilgrimage to Celtic Scotland and England focusing on our Methodist roots and beginnings. From May 4-17, 2025 our pilgrims will travel from the Isle of Iona southward to eventually arrive in London. Along the way we will explore Celtic history, faith, and spirituality with dedicated time to be transformed by the story of John Wesley and the beginnings of the Methodist expression of Christianity. During our information session, we will review the itinerary along with pricing, logistics, and how to sign up. Please register to attend one of the remaining sessions at the church's website (www.ffmc.org/events) or by using our FFMC app.

Join in a celebration of Olympic feasting and fun next Sunday by bringing a unique international dish to share at an all-church potluck in the Upper Fine Center following Sunday worship. We will celebrate the Olympic spirit with a view of the movie "Chariots of Fire" while we share in lunch and fellowship. Please register now at ffmc.org/events.
